Laws of the United States

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 2.]

Joint Resolution explanatory of an Act entitled "An Act to increase the duties on tea, coffee and sugar," approved 24th December, 1861.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he hereby is authorized and directed to permit goods warehoused at the date of the passage of "An Act to increase the duties on tea, coffee and sugar," approved December 24th, 1861, to be withdrawn on payment of the duties imposed by the act entitled "An Act to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved August 5th, 1861, and to refund any excess of duties above those imposed by said last mentioned act which may have been collected on such goods already withdrawn, any law or parts of laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

Approved, January 11, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 3.]

Joint Resolution authorizing Henry Sawyer to accept a medal.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Henry Sawyer, Consul to Surinam, be and he is hereby authorized to accept the medal recently transmitted to him by the King of Holland for an act of humanity in an effort to save the life of a subject of that kingdom.

Approved, January 11, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 4.]

Joint Resolution for the sale of the ruins of the Washington Infirmary.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Commissioner of Public Buildings be and hereby is directed to sell at public auction all the material, building and otherwise, now remaining on Judiciary Square, of the late "Washington Infirmary," with the condition that the same be removed by the purchaser within a reasonable time from the day of sale, to be fixed by the Commissioner. And the avails of said sale may be used by the Commissioner to pay for the taking care of said property since the fire, and for the improvement of said Judiciary Square, he rendering the accounts in the usual manner to the Treasury for the same.

Approved January 18, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 5.]

Joint Resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to transfer certain balances of an appropriation for printing of the second session of the Thirty-sixth Congress to the sum appropriated for the first session of the Thirty-sixth Congress.

Whereas the appropriation for supplying the deficiencies in the appropriation for printing ordered to be executed by the first session of the Thirty-sixth Congress has been exhausted, leaving a balance to be provided for of $5,668,71, and said printing having been completed; and whereas there remains of the appropriation for printing ordered at the second session of the Thirty-sixth Congress a balance of $[illegible], for which it will not be required, as the printing for the second session Thirty-sixth Congress has been completed and paid for: Therefore,

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to transfer from the balance of the appropriation now standing to the credit of said appropriation on the books of the Treasury for printing for the second session Thirty-sixth Congress, a sum sufficient to meet the outstanding claims for printing for the first session Thirty-sixth Congress.

Approved January 21, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 6.]

Joint Resolution declaratory of the purpose of Congress to impose a tax.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the purpose to pay the ordinary expenses of the Government, the interest on the national loans, and have an ample sinking fund for the ultimate liquidation of all public debts, a tax shall be imposed, which shall, with the tariff on imports, secure an annual revenue of not less than $150,000,000.

[Approved January 21, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 7.]

A Resolution authorizing certain officers of the Navy to accept presents offered by the Japanese Government.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Captain W. W. McKean, Commander of the United States steam frigate Niagara, and such of the officers of that vessel during her late voyage to Japan, and other officers of the Navy as may yet remain in the service of the United States, be authorized to accept the presents recently transmitted to this Government for presentation to them by the Government of Japan.

Approved, January 25, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 8.]

A Resolution for payment of the expenses of the Joint Committee of Congress appointed to inquire into the conduct of the war.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated to pay the expenses of the Joint Committee of Congress appointed to inquire into the conduct of the present war, and that said sum shall be drawn from the Treasury upon the order of the Secretary of the Senate as the same shall be required from time to time by the committee for conducting such investigation [illegible].

Approved January [illegible] 1862.

The Conservative Congressmen

Towards the last of June the telegraph announced that a meeting of conservative Congressmen had been held in Washington to devise ways and means to save the country from the effects of the Confiscation and Emancipation Bill, as well as other radical measures. Some thirty-five members were present—the majority were from the Border States, though quite a sprinkling of "peace Democrats" from the West were present and made themselves conspicuous in the meeting. The papers by the steamer contain a short report of the proceedings, including the resolutions adopted. Among them were Richardson of Illinois, Allen of Ohio, Steele of New York, Holman of Indiana, and Biddle of Pennsylvania. In the debate on the resolutions, Richardson expressed the opinion "that if the authority of the Government is everywhere to be restored, it must be by saying to the great masses at the South, You have done wrong, lay down your arms and you shall not be touched." He was in favor of saying this decisively. And in further explanation he said "he was in favor of applying the halter to the leaders of the rebellion." This is a doctrine which does not exactly suit the Breckinridge Secession Democrats in California—they consider the rebel leaders as the purest, best and bravest of patriots. Allen of Ohio thought "the leaders of the rebellion should suffer the extreme penalty of the law." The first of the series of resolutions adopted read as follows:

Resolved, That the Constitution and the Union and the laws must be preserved and maintained in all their proper and rightful supremacy, and that the rebellion now in arms against them must be suppressed and put down, and that it is our duty to vote for all the measures necessary and proper to that end.

Resolved, That the present war, as avowed by the President and Congress, and understood by the people, was commenced and prosecuted for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion and preserving and vindicating the Constitution, the Union and laws, and for that purpose only. It was a great and noble purpose, high above any mere sectional or party objects, and at once it inspired and united in its support all loyal men of every creed, party and section. At the call of the Government, a mighty army—the noblest and most patriotic ever known—sprung at once into the field, and is bleeding and conquering in defense of its Government. Under these circumstances, it would, in our opinion, be most unjust and ungenerous to give any new character or direction to the war for the accomplishment of any other than its first great purpose and especially for the accomplishment of any mere party or sectional scheme.

Of the effect which the action of these professed conservative members is calculated to have upon parties, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says:

What do the "conservative" members of Congress hope to effect by such an organization? Do they desire to throw into the next House of Representatives a class of men like Vallandigham and Wood, whose feelings are unquestionably with Secession, and who seize every occasion to display these sympathies, and who use their best endeavors to prevent a vigorous prosecution of the war? Do the border State men wish to hasten a peace with the rebels and bring them back in the border States again to lord it over the people?—Strange to say, the rebels themselves—the men who have so bitterly persecuted and oppressed the people of Kentucky, Missouri, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina and Maryland—hail every such demonstration as this "conservative" meeting as so much gained for their cause. Nothing gave these persistent foes of liberty more hope than the address of the fifteen Democratic members of Congress, issued several weeks ago. There is not a Breckinridger in the free States that does not stand ready to rally under any call that will give him an opportunity to show his hatred to the cause of our country. Nothing is worthy of censure in the atrocities of the rebels, but he is constantly denouncing the Abolitionists. Of course the people can see through schemes like this, and it is to be hoped that the truly conservative and loyal men of the border States will not wait too long to be convinced of this fact. It is a fatal blunder they are committing. They have in Lincoln a forbearing, magnanimous, generous friend, and it would be but ordinary gratitude on their part to confide in a man who has no ambition but to serve and save the republic.—Sacramento Union.

A Sight from the Balloon.

Col. Lowe's balloon yesterday was stationed near Gaines' Mills, on the right centre of the Union line, and within six miles of Richmond. It was in the air the whole day, and in the few hours it ascended, some thirty or forty army officers observed the position of the enemy's troops from the elevated point of view it afforded. The balloon is held to the ground by a strong cord a thousand feet in length, and of course ascends to that distance above the earth. A pulley and tackle arrangement, worked by men below, is the power used to pull it down, and, being strongly fastened to the earth, there is very little danger of the machine's escape. The Colonel and his assistants very seldom ascend, officers and others, with authority for the ascension, being sent up by twos and threes at a time, and, after a few minutes' stay, hauled down.

When the balloon has ascended at this point to the end of its tether, a grand view of both armies is unfolded. Within a circle of two miles in radius the sight is very perfect; beyond that the angle of vision becomes so nearly horizontal that woods, houses, and hill, materially interfere with the view. The landscape has three marked objects upon it, which are the first to strike the eye. The Chickahominy, almost beneath one's feet, bordered by its dark-green swamps, runs like a thread from where it rises on the horizon, away off to the north west, to where it blends with woods and hills in the south-east. The James river in front, though distant, runs in a deep crooked valley, and bears on its bosom hundreds of craft that, in the distance, looks like white specks upon the blue waters.

Richmond, covering a large portion of the western horizon, is, however, the principal sight. It appears to the balloonist as a confused medley of red, white, and black, and heavy brown fortifications stretching from the right to the left, with thick walls plentifully sprinkled with cannon, surrounding it on all sides. The Capitol Square can scarcely be discerned, being too thickly surrounded with buildings. The white Capitol, however, is quite conspicuous, and, of course, the stars and bars float over the roof. Three church spires, seemingly all in one spot, are the brightest part of the town, and catch the eye almost before the observer is aware he is looking at Richmond. But little else, however, can be distinguished, although, for a general view of the town, nothing could be better than that from the balloon.

The space between the Chickahominy and the fortifications around Richmond is almost filled with rebel camps. A thousand cavalry horses were picketed in one field, and others were plentifully sprinkled all about. Wedge tents, used by the officers, and little dog tents by the men, shone in every direction as the sun's rays struck them. Intrenchments and rifle pits lined the front of their position, though very few guns were mounted. Several guns of heavy calibre are sprinkled along these earthworks. Rebel camps, however, are the most prominent of all the sights.—They show in every direction, and the southern and western horizon seems to be their only boundary.

Of our own position, as seen from the balloon, I must be silent. One thing, however, in the whole view is most remarkable. Right through the centre of the picture, runs a curved belt of dark green and yellow about a mile wide. Not a man, gun, tent, or wagon, appears upon it. It is the line between the two armies. Over it cannon balls are thrown, and on its surface scouts and pickets hide from each other, but no military sign is to be seen upon it. Everywhere else, stretching as far as the eye can reach, are the thousand and one things incident to war; but this broad, quiet, deserted belt of land, so lonely, so somber, varying only as it is swamp or field, or stream, lies there so still that it almost inspires the beholder. Jupiter's rings or Saturn's belts never were a grander sight than this belt of land on which nothing like a tent or gun appears.—Cor. Phil. Press.

PROGRESS OF EMANCIPATION SENTIMENT IN MARYLAND.—The Washington Star publishes a large number of extracts from Maryland papers, all showing the rapid progress of emancipationism in the State of Maryland. Ex-Governor Hicks, Hon. Reverdy Johnson and Senator Sellman are said to be open advocates of the new order of things. The Baltimore American, the ablest paper in the State, keeps up its fire in support of the President's policy on this subject.

Heaven holds no conditional saint, and the Union should tolerate no conditional patriot.—Nashville Union.

The Doom of the South

The New York Express—edited by Brooks—has until lately talked a good deal about making compromises with the traitors. The editor has possibly become satisfied that that policy will not answer. He now declares that loyal people every where will say, "If Southern men will not take the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, they must quit the United States. No man who refuses to swear allegiance to the Government and the flag has any claim for the protection of that Government or that flag. Aliens to the soil in arms or in heart, hostile to the Government over that soil, cannot be permitted to exist as real estate holders or as voters on that soil. To work out all this may cost years and years—and we fear it will—under the half in half, and ever half-affrighted and half affrighting policy, or no policy, of the Administration, but it will be worked out in the end—if in no other way—by an armed occupation of Southern soil, parceling it out, and giving it to settlers from every part of the earth, with arms in their hands to defend it. God spare us from that awful struggle! May God avert such destiny from governors or governed, but so writes history over all long contested civil or servile wars!"

We say with the Express, may God avert such a destiny for the people of the South, but we much fear they will bring it upon themselves.

Oregon Watering Place.

Every State has its watering place, where the denizens of cities and hot gulches and canons, can go and enjoy pure air, healthful breezes, fine baths, fishing, hunting, and other pleasures and delights, in the hot weeks of summer. Oregon has here—not as well known and appreciated as hereafter it will be. Of course we allude to the region round about Astoria, especially over south thence, where the country has the full view of the ocean.

The watering place is now readily accessible. Capt. Strang has now the command of the Jennie Clark, and under his auspices she makes a weekly trip from Portland to Astoria. Price of passage, if you go down and come up on her, $10. This is cheap enough, and the Captain knows how to make you comfortable on the trip. He will land you at Astoria. There, if you want to stop, you can get good board in some three or four public houses at seven dollars a week. The Argus says further:

"Astoria is eight miles from the ocean, five miles of which lie across Young's Bay, over which several boats pass every day carrying passengers for fifty cents each. The remaining three miles by land make a fine walk, or if you wish to ride, a carriage or saddle horses are always at hand at the landing. From the landing to Latty's, who lives at the lower end of Clatsop Plains, and keeps an excellent boarding house at seven dollars a week, is fourteen miles over a nice road leading past quite a number of farms. Latty's house being but a quarter of a mile from the sea, visitors can bathe, catch clams and crabs, or angle for trout in an adjacent brook, which affords them in great abundance. Tiring of any or all these, one can take to the primeval forests with a gun, almost sure if he be a good hunter, of soon starting a bear, an elk, or a deer."

We advise all who can to visit this watering place. A visit there will change your cadaverous faces to a healthful glow. It will increase your appetite alarmingly. You will come home invigorated—ready to resume your labor with a pleasure and energy you now little dream of. Go all who can. We can't.

RIOTS AT SALMON RIVER.—A miner, recently returned from Lewiston, Salmon river, informs us that at the time he left the greatest disorder prevailed. Houses were being burnt down and lives taken by the famished miners who had no money. No new diggings have been discovered this season, though persons holding original claims that were taken up last year are realizing enormous returns.—Victoria Press.

Another hard story. That escaped miner must have experienced hard times and seen sights which no other mortal ever witnessed before—he saw "Lewiston" on Salmon river. That certainly was a sight very extraordinary as no other person ever saw Lewiston within a hundred miles of Salmon river. The remainder of the sights are equally as extraordinary and as truthfully represented, with the exception of the last line. How it should happen that he knew the real facts in this last case, is also somewhat surprising, for when a fellow starts out to tell a story, he generally winds up as he began. Try again Press—you got in one fact in your item about Salmon river that time—perhaps you may improve in your next.

VINDICATION.—We notice that the last Washington Standard contains a lengthy reply made by Surveyor General Henry to certain severe personal charges published against him a few weeks previous in the Steilacoom Herald. The Doctor produces the "documents" to sustain his vindication, which unquestionably refute the charges alluded to.

FIRE AT THE DALLES.—The old frame structure, known as the Forsyth's Building, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 30th ult. Loss about $600.

The streets are wide because the land belongs to the Nez Perces Indians and the builders [illegible] that

[illegible]

No one has any title to the land upon which his house stands, but the title of occupancy. For this title he has paid from $200 to $1,000 for a building lot. The Luna House, the [illegible] mont House, the Pioneer, and all the principal houses are built of cloth. Wooden buildings are scarce because wood is scarce. The vast scope of country lying between the Cascades and the Bitter Root mountains is entirely without timber; gambling houses, dwelling houses and everything built of cloth. No. 1 Duck demands a good price and ready sale. The people are of all castes and [illegible] and nationality. The [illegible] the enterprising Yankee, the [illegible] Missourian, the lymphatic Chinaman, the sable African, the indolent Indian. All nationalities are here [illegible] to secure a position sufficient of oro.

It is the hour for divine service, and in the distance is the voice of singing. The noise of the gamblers and their attachees well nigh stifles the sound of the few who are met to worship. But the moon is lending her aid, and we finally reach an unfinished wooden building, with open front, and pieces of wood and timber scattered on the floor for seats. The minister leads the singing, and occasionally a voice "joins in the chorus." A score of persons are inside the house, and many more outside. The minister delivers himself of much more sound than sense, and his auditors seem pleased with the idea of a change. The services over, we wend our way through the crowds of people and the flying dust, and finally stand at the entrance of the Luna House, which is a mammoth tent, and not satisfied with the appearance of things, go with our friend to a hay stack and turn in for the night.

John Day Mines

Mr. Brentz, the expressman, left the South Fork of John Day on Wednesday the 30th ult., and from him we derive much information relative to the mines. A large number of miners have come in from Powder River, and these, with others who have gone in, swell the population in the mines to fully one thousand.

A company has been organized for the purpose of introducing water on Rich Flat. They expect to complete their ditch in about four weeks, and will furnish water to a large number of miners who now pack the dirt on their backs.

The river has been turned in several places by wing dams, and wherever holes have been sunk in the bed of the river, good prospects have been obtained. A majority of the miners have just completed their dams and are now engaged in rigging pumps.

New discoveries of gold have been made in a dry gulch, about five miles beyond Canyon creek. Smith, Murray & Co. were the fortunate discoverers. They sunk three small prospect holes near the head of the gulch, and out of them obtained $17. They have brought a ditch from a creek 2½ miles beyond, furnishing eight or ten sluice heads of water. About three hundred yards below the prospect holes, two men with sluices are taking out an average of about $7 to the hand. They have taken out two pieces—one weighing $14, the other $15. The gold contains some quartz. In sinking the first hole they struck a quartz bed rock at the depth of six or seven feet.

Bozarth & Co., on Canyon creek, three miles above its mouth, have sunk a hole 4 feet square down to the bed rock, and got out $24. They find about three feet pay dirt.

W. S. Eboy & Co. still above Bozarth & Co. on Canyon Creek, have gone down 10 feet to the bed rock. They found 4 feet pay dirt. Half way through pay dirt they got $4 to the pan. They feel sure that the dirt will pay 50 cents to pan.

Page, Rice & Tathill on Rich Gulch in 4 days work took out $221 0. The claim averages from an ounce to $20 a day per man. Rich Point prospects from $1 to $10 to the pan.

Discoveries have been made about 12 miles above the mouth of Canyon creek. Pieces were found weighing an ounce each. Near the mouth of the creek R. Whitten took out with a pan $160 in one day. In one pan he got $118 50, and from it am [illegible] in several others. Another man sunk a hole to the bed rock, and got out $100 [illegible] pan $14 in another $75.

The supply of provisions and miners' tools is quite limited. A town has been laid out on Canyon creek, two miles above its mouth. It has been named Ora[illegible]a, and bids fair to become a flourishing place.—Washington [illegible]

THANKS.—To Capt. Fleming of the steamer Eliza Anderson of Puget Sound for files of late Victoria and Westminster papers. The Anderson, we believe, is again making regular trips between Olympia and Victoria carrying the U. S. Mail on the Sound. She is in excellent st[illegible] and her commander and officers are deservedly popular among the people of that section.

The Wilson G. Hunt arrived at the usual hour near four o'clock yesterday afternoon, bringing about sixty passengers, but no much dust. No news of importance from the mines. We are under obligations to Wells, Fargo & Co. for [illegible] Mountaineer yesterday.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to July 30th.

YREKA, Aug 2.—Dates to the 31st July.—Washington, July 30.—It is now a well established fact that the rebels are in strong force between Richmond and the Appomatox, and are still collecting forces and sending them in that direction.

JACKSON, (Tenn.) July 28.—Boonville [illegible] was entered on Friday by 70 mounted rebels, and 160 bales of cotton burned and $20,000 [illegible] burned [illegible]

Capt. Dollins, with 50 men, had a skirmish with 200 rebels at the mouth of Deer creek, killing and wounding several of the enemy and driving them across the river.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—It seems to be the impression that drafting will be resorted to in most of the Border States. Governor Bradford of Maryland will [illegible]

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Lieut. Rogers of the steamer Huntsville [illegible] with the British schooner Adela, at Nassau on the 10th with all papers. He sent her to Key West for adjudication. On the 21st he captured the rebel steamer Reliance, bound to Nassau and [illegible]. The dispatch boat Sallie Wood was captured by the rebels 100 miles above Vicksburg. They also took a number of prisoners and destroyed the boat.

Richmond papers contain the proceedings of the Court Martial which tried Commodore Tatnall for the destruction of the Merrimac. He was awarded an honorable acquittal.

A dispatch from Knoxville, Tenn., says that Morgan sent a special courier to headquarters stating that he has taken 11 cities and towns, and heavy quantities of army stores. He says that he has a force sufficient to hold the country outside of Lexington and Frankfort, and that the bridges between Lexington and Cincinnati have been burned. But according to last accounts Morgan was seeking safety in flight with Smith in pursuit.

The Mobile and Ohio Railroad is again in running order. We learn that a powerful military force, consisting of a portion of Sherman's and Curtis' division has been dispatched Southward to take part in the siege of Vicksburg. Gen. Pope and staff left Washington for the field on the 29th.

MEMPHIS, July 29.—Another attempt was made by the Queen of the West to capture the gunboat Arkansas. The Queen of the West struck the Arkansas two tremendous blows, injuring herself badly, but not disabling the rebel boat.

The State of Maine has raised her full quota of troops under the late call.

NASHVILLE, July 28.—The rebel mail from Chattanooga has been captured. The letters contain valuable information. Gen. Beauregard has resigned and gone to the Springs in Alabama. Gen. Bragg is at Vicksburg.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 28.—The mail boat from Harrison Landing has arrived. A movement of some kind was hourly expected.

MEMPHIS, July 28.—Advices from the South say ten iron clad gunboats, built in England and fully equipped, have arrived at Mobile. Three more are expected. These constitute the fleet ordered by the Southern Confederacy to be purchased in Europe,—they mount from 10 to 30 guns each, and are said to be mailed with 6 inch iron. Mobile is now considered opened to the world. These statements are not entitled to explicit credence.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Advices from Warrenton, Va., 30th, say: Col. Lloyd commanding at Marry, yesterday, in pursuance of Gen. Pope's orders, arrested all the male inhabitants of the town, and lodged them in the court house, preparatory to administering the oath of allegiance.

McClellan issued orders that every man should be ready [illegible] action at a moment's notice. It is thought that an attack by Gen. Jackson may be expected at any time. 880 Union prisoners, sick and wounded, arrived from Richmond.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—Joe Little [illegible] 100 [illegible] winning the first [illegible]

Eastern News.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 26th.—We are credibly informed that a large rebel force is being concentrated on James river above the junction of the Apomatox and James river.—this comes from Richmond by way of Petersburg railroad—believed to be 40,000 or 50,000 men under the command of Jackson, notwithstanding the rumor that he is in pursuit of Polk. Our informant is very confident that the rebels are now making a bold stand at the above named place, bringing all the forces there they can spare from Richmond. He believes the intention of the rebels is to very soon make an attack upon Suffolk, as they are within [illegible] miles of that place with considerable force. Night before last a company of rebel cavalry came down on Gloucester Point, opposite Yorktown, and seized and carried off a lot of contrabands, who had accumulated there, and also forced into the rebel army all males that could be found there capable of bearing arms. They then set fire to the ship timber and left. Rebel cavalry are almost daily prowling about that region seeking plunder of any kind and pressing into service all the men they can find who they think may be of any service to them.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Special dispatches to the New York papers say that this district is more infested with disloyal men than any other outside of Dixie. They take every opportunity to insult and oppress Unionists, spurn the stars and stripes, and rejoice over every rumor of disaster to the Union cause. This is particularly the case in Georgetown, where in absence of a provost guard disloyalty is violent and [illegible]. Numerous cases of insults thereto Union people and the Union flag are cited.

Steamer Florence from New Orleans 20th has arrived, and reports the health of the city good. Two thousand men are employed in cleaning the streets. News of the explosion of the rebel ram Arkansas caused some excitement, but it was soon quieted down.

One hundred and twenty-five thousand bales of cotton are reported to have been shipped in one day from Bombay to Liverpool.

A late order of Gen. Pope, requiring residents within his lines to take the oath of allegiance or emigrate is already bearing fruit. Thirty leading rebels of Fredericksburg have gone to Richmond with their families, and others are preparing to follow.

Rebels speak confidently of the capture of Washington within a week by Jackson.

CITY COUNCIL.—Wednesday evening August 6th.—Present, Messrs Dennison Halleck, Holmes Silvers Williams and Mr President

Communication was received from the Mayor relative to the unsafe condition of the bridges in the Southern part of the city relative to the $200 warrant drawn for the building of a bridge at the foot of Hall street, and also relative to the improvement of the public square, urging the Common Council to attend to those necessary improvements at an early day

Communication from W W Chapman asking permission to finish wharf at foot of Washington street, read and referred to Committee on Streets and Wharves

An ordinance to prevent and remove nuisances, read a first and second time and laid over.

FOUND.—The body of William G Weatherford was found yesterday evening about half past seven o'clock, floating in the river near the spot where he was drowned on Friday last. We are informed that the features of the unfortunate young man were much mutilated, and decomposition was fast taking place. We are truly glad that his body has been recovered as it will afford a slight relief to the sorrow stricken parents and friends of this excellent youth, in thus having an opportunity of giving his remains a decent and respectable burial, near where they can visit the resting place of their favorite child and respected companion

SAILED.—The Sierra Nevada sailed last evening at 7 o'clock for San Francisco direct, with a large number of passengers and at least half a million in treasure Several prominent citizens of Portland took passage on the steamship, some for the Bay City and some for the Atlantic States—among whom was our respected Mayor, Col Farrar, who goes on a trip to Washington City Two companies of California Volunteers also were taken on board at Vancouver, en route for Humboldt from the upper country

IN RECORDER'S COURT.—Yesterday John Y. [illegible] was "brought up standing" for drunken and disorderly conduct found guilty and fined $5 and costs, which was paid and John [illegible] at liberty

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—A slight mistake was accidentally made by us yesterday in stating the time of the arrival of the Wilson G. Hunt We stated that she arrived at three o'clock, when it should have read four o'clock. This steamer usually arrives at about four o'clock in the evening, near the same time of the arrival of the overland stage sometimes a little later, and at others a few minutes after both of which, however, make extraordinary good time.

LUMBER.—The saw mills near the city are running constantly, sawing lumber, and still the demand is greater than the supply Lumber is readily selling at prices ranging from $17 to $35 per 1000 feet,—owing to the quality and finish Lumber for building purposes is in great demand, which is conclusive evidence that our city is fast improving

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of the late Wm. Weatherford will take place from the Methodist Church to-day at 1 o'clock, P M The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches" or Lozenges let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR L J CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession His rival is an illustrious example a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe and Dr C[illegible] has fully equalled him in this country as a proof of which the [illegible] College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army for more extended labors Dr L J Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the [illegible] of chronic and private diseases in which he has won so great an [illegible], that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this [illegible] of his [illegible] throughout the United States and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, [illegible] corner of Leidesdorff nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the [illegible] certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper Parties not wishing to lose time in corresponding, will please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases Address L J CZAPKAY, M D, San Francisco Cal

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oil and herbs It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate to be injured by it in the least I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once restore the [illegible] action and relieve the pain

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night; it will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease

If you have the Dyspepsia and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored If you have a painful swelling bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced

If you have a severe tooth-ache apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time it will stop the pain instantly

If you have a pain in the Breast Side Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally

If a Mother has a caked breast apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever take a dose of Panacea

If you have a wound cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time

STARKED ON SLANDER at
CHARLES BARRETT'S

A Big Thing on the 'Hum Guards.'—The war is prolific in humorous speeches as well as bloody honors. For instance, a brave volunteer is introduced by the following:

Rev Mr , a man about six feet four in his stockings, and of proportions worthy a grenadier, and whose heart is as stout as his frame a thorough Union man, and who is in for war until all treason is thoroughly crushed out, was recently conducting a religious conference meeting, when a brother arose to speak, who, after alluding to his hopes and fears in a religious point of view, branched out in reference to the state of the country, saying that so great was his devotion to the Stars and Stripes that he had enlisted, and after a few further patriotic remarks begged an interest in the prayers of the Church that he might be protected by Divine Providence on the battle field, and that if he should fall a victim to the bullets of the enemy, he might be prepared for the change

Such a speech at any time would thrill with patriotic fervor the brave heart of our worthy minister, and he consequently spoke a few words of encouragement to the hero. When the wife of the enlisting soldier volunteered her experience, in the course of which, alluding to her husband's enlistment, she expressed a willingness to give him up, even unto death, in the service of his country

In a few moments after the meeting came to an end, when the minister, all anxiety for the welfare of the patriotic volunteer, proceeded to make some inquiries in reference to his regiment, commencing with the very natural question as to its name and number, when he received the startling reply:

"I've jined the Home Guard!"

Horses Should be Exercised Daily.—Horses require daily exercise in the open air, and can no more be expected to exist without it than their owners. Exercise is an essential feature in stable management, and like well-opportuned food, it tends alike to preserve the health of horses.

Daily exercise is necessary for all horses, unless they are sick; it assists and promotes a free circulation of the blood, determines morbific matter to the surface, develops the muscular structure, creates an appetite, improves the wind, and finally invigorates the whole system. We cannot expect much of a horse that has not been habituated to sufficient daily exercise, while such as have been daily exercised, and well managed, are capable not only of great exertion and fatigue, but are ready to do our bidding at any season. When an animal is overworked, it renders the system very susceptible to whatever morbid influences may be present, and imparts to the disease that they may labor under, an unusual degree of severity. The exhaustion produced by want of rest is equally dangerous; such horses are always among the first victims of disease, and when attacked their treatment is embarrassing and unsatisfactory.—G. H. D., in Am Stock Journal.

The Soul Made Visible.—Every one knows that in every human face there is an impalpable, immaterial something, which we call "expression," which seems to be, as it were, "the soul made visible." Where minds live in the region of pure thoughts and happy emotions, the felicities and sanctities of the inner temple shine out through the mortal tenement, and play over it like lambent flame. The incense makes the whole altar sweet; and we can understand what the poet means when he says that

> "Beauty born of murmuring sound
> Shall pass into her face."

On the other hand, no man can live a gormandizing, sordid or licentious life, and still wear a countenance hallowed and sanctified with a halo of peace and joy. Around such great manufacturing towns as Birmingham in England, or Pittsburg in this country, where bituminous coal is used, you will find the roses in the flower beds and the strawberries and grapes on the vines blackened and defiled by a foul deposit from a thousand chimneys. Thus do obscene, profane and irreverent men scatter their crime and stench upon the innocence and beauty around them, but most deeply and foully upon themselves

Barley.

This valuable grain is now much cultivated in many sections of our State, and is used, not unfrequently, as a substitute for corn and wheat. The constituents of barley—taking the grain and haulm together—have, on burning, 7.04 per cent. of ashes, while the straw and grain of oats leave but 5.73 per cent. The analysis of these ashes demonstrates the position of barley, and places it in the category of silicious plants The same remark applies, also, with equal correctness to oats the ashes of the latter furnishing 62 per cent. of silica, and 25 per cent. of lime salts; the ashes of barley 25 per cent. of lime salts, and 55 of silica. We mention these grains in connection, because some have affected to believe that oats require an aliment essentially different from that demanded by other cereal grains

Oats flourish on any good corn land, but barley requires a sandy, or even gravelly loam; a soil that is light and warm. Very fine barley is now brought from California, and may be purchased for sixty-five or seventy cents per bushel This is probably taken as ballast, or in preference to returning with empty bottoms.

Barley has risen in the estimation of farmers, and is now cultivated more freely than it has been for years.—N. E. Farmer.

A Sound Man.—A "Sucker's" idea of soundness is aptly illustrated in the remark of an old bee hunter in one of the Egyptian counties. The "times" were the subject of conversation among a group of villagers at "the store," and the soundness of the various Illinois banks was under discussion. Among these is the Gaston Bank, owned by Smith, a very popular man among the "copperas-breeches" in that neighborhood.

"Is Smith sound?" inquired one of the party.

Uncle Milt, an old pioneer, taking his pipe from a hole in his face like a slit in the side of a sole-leather, broke out:

"Sound! Smith sound! Well he is. He never war sick in his life, weighs more'n a hundred and eighty, voted for Douglas, and believes in immersion—sure! I call that sound—some!"

Conversation.—The object of conversation is to entertain and amuse. To be agreeable you must learn to be a good listener. A man who monopolizes a conversation is a bore, no matter how great his knowledge

☞ A French engineer, discussing in French English, the subject of the new floating battery, or the steam ram, spoke of it as "vot great mail sheep"

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat Nose and Eyes Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling Loss of Memory Loss of Power, General Weakness Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face Pains in the Back and Head Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin eyes throat and lungs entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement prevents the proper development of the system disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust vigor and health

[illegible] and all diseases of males and females treat[illegible] principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by the most remarkable cures [illegible] in Oregon and Washington Territories by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR L J CZAPKAY Medical Institute Sacramento street below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office San Francisco

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health and [illegible] gratitude make known their names and residence and their statement [illegible] authenticated by a Notary Public. The [illegible] their publicity and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted

Certificate—The ardors and emotions of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained to feel it my duty to thus publicly express my sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Being down by the fatal [illegible] accident to the vicious practices of uncontrolled passion in youth, depressed in body and mind unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life I sought the services of many physicians who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance. But alas, after a few weeks' trial of several [illegible] months of their treatment I found to my mortification that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming, to their future, [illegible] by one that my disease being principally [illegible] the brain medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever gaining my health strength, and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this effect I resolved to place myself immediately under his care and by strict obedience to all his directions and advice my health became clear and my ideas collected the constant pain in my back and groins the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body, the slightest alarm or excitement the frequent [illegible] and evil foreboding the self-distrust and want of confidence in others the incapability of study and want of resolution the frightful exciting and at times pleasant dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharge have all disappeared and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I feel as if inspired with a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With these views regard the moral right to [illegible] but the success of the [illegible] it my duty to [illegible] to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay [illegible] recommend him to all who may stand in need of his [illegible] being assured by my own experience that they [illegible] a radical and permanent cure [illegible]
B F FILLMORE

State of California County of San Francisco

Subscribed and sworn to before me this seventh day of April A D 1856 [Signed]
[illegible] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public

Marysville, June 3d 1856

Dr L J Czapkay San Francisco—Sir I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks since I called at your institute with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and feel so at everything. Now that you know what I expected you may judge of my astonishment at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers in my throat and the unfavorable appearances of those emissions which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest my joy or my surprise, I except nothing fully getting strength I feel as well as any man [illegible]

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours THOMAS HAYDEN

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

Certificate—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a recommendation [illegible] of Dr. Czapkay's skill [illegible] humanity [illegible] About two years ago, I suddenly and from causes unknown to me was seized with a fit of epilepsy which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment and the discouragement at which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although [illegible] the agonies I got despised the miseries of my life and [illegible] to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my affliction. While in this state and having previous to my affliction tasted the sweets of life I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician and by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay [illegible] of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which however he at once undertook my case and with the blessing of God I was now more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and [illegible] of my health, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
